April Kids Week at Pilgrim Hall Museum

Bring the youngsters for special weekday performances and events, plus daily Treasure Hunt activities throughout vacation week. Kids Week programs are entertaining and educational for young learners, and there's plenty for grown-ups to explore at Pilgrim Hall Museum, too - it's a great experience for the whole family!

Monday, April 16th - 1 pm - "Brenner's Magical Mystery Show"

Magician Stephen Brenner captivates youngsters with a high-energy presentation of magic and mystery! Appropriate for all ages.

Tuesday, April 17th - 1 pm - "Barnicle & Husk"

Discover Barnicle and Husk: The Adventure Begins. In 1620, Barnicle the cat finds himself on the Mayflower along with 102 Pilgrims and a little mouse named Husk. In the New World, cat and mouse become unexpected friends. Author Mary Shields read excerpts from the book, and presents a lively program of games and activities, including make-and-take items to bring home. Keep your eyes out for a special visit from Barnicle and Husk in person! Appropriate for ages 5-11.

Wednesday, April 18th - 1 pm - "Native American Book Readings"

Enjoy Native American book readings and themed craft activities with educators Judy Fosdick and Tedda Lindeman, while gathered in PHM's new Wampanoag World exhibition. Appropriate for ages 5-11.

Thursday, April 19th - 1 pm - "Rhythm Speaks Drum Circle"

Percussionist Ed Sorrentino brings the beat with an array of authentic West African drums to get everyone in rhythm! Appropriate for all ages.

Friday, April 20th - 1 pm - "Big Ryan's Tall Tales"

Dynamic performer Big Ryan brings stories to life for all ages with puppets, music, and plenty of zazzle! Appropriate for all ages.
