On Saturday, September 22nd at 7 pm enjoy a combination illustrated lecture and concert based on the original manuscript music book of Stephen Parker in Pilgrim Hall Museum's Archives. Stephen Parker was most likely a twelve-year old fifer when he enlisted to serve with the Patriot cause. Learn about the songs and music played by the common soldiers during the American War for Independence as copied down in Parker's Music book. Hear the music, the ballads, dances, and marches drawn from mostly British sources that young fifers like Parker played.
